IGOR AFRIKYAN - Compass Manipulator

We received a signed application.

Quote:

Dear Sirs,

My name is Igor Afrikyan and I would like to take part in One Million Dollar Paranormal Challenge of the James Randi Educational Foundation.

I have got the ability to make an arrow of a compass move without touching it, just by thinking of it. The arrow will move. I also tried to do the same with a needle laying on the water and successful (needle moved).

I discovered that ability in myself about 15 years ago in my home and a quite a few people witnessed that since.

I do not have to move to make an arrow of a compass move. I can stay motionless as I said I just think about it, imagine it and a hand will move.

I can do the same with few compasses at once with the same result.

In case anyone is interested, I can submit a videotape.

I'm ready to answer any questions.

Looking forward to hear from you,

Sincerely,

Igor Afrikyan

Some e-mail between Igor and myself:

Randi and I discussed your challenge. Randi is going to ask CSICOP Russia to handle your testing since they are much closer to you. Could we have your mailing address please?

Thanks,

Hello, my name is Jeff Wagg and I'm the JREF Challenge Coordinator. Your application is being processed. Please communicate with me, instead of James Randi, as it slows things down.

Thank you,
